

58th International Allgäuflug 2024

The 57th International Allgäuflug 2023 is History

We can look back with pride on an extremely successful Allgäuflug weekend. We remember the newly designed open Club Championship in Air Navigation Race mode (ANR) on Thursday and Friday, the training flight on Friday with 36 participants, the welcome party and the Club Spring Festival on Friday evening, the challenging but wonderful competition flight through the Alpine foothills on Saturday and the festive closing event with award ceremony and raffle on Saturday evening.

And we remember unbelievable weather luck, a little frosty at times but always flyable, thanks to St. Peter!

With 51 registrations and ultimately 44 aircraft taking off, the Allgäuflug now occupies an exceptional position among navigation and rally competitions, also internationally. And most importantly, the participants were in the air for over 130 hours without an accident, not including the journey to and from the event - thank you for your great discipline!

The extremely positive feedback from many participants during the event and afterwards by email or phone call spurs us on.

A big compliment to the participants for the enthusiastic cooperation on the ground and in the air during the three days and a big thank you to the many helping members of the FG Leutkirch and the organisation team for the excellent organisation and execution of the competition.

Hotel directory

The Fliegergruppe Leutkirch e.V. has informed the following hotels in Leutkirch about the event. Participants book their accommodation themselves. Participants are also responsible for any cancellation of accommodation. We ask you to book the hotels early, as no contingents are reserved and availability is not guaranteed for late bookings.

No special conditions have been negotiated with the hotels, but most of the hotels are generally prepared to offer a discount. Please ask under the motto "Allgäuflug"! If there are no more rooms available, please contact the competition organisers (Allgäuflug@gmail.com) and we will be happy to help you find alternative accommodation.

The participants will inform the organiser about the booked hotel at the check-in after arrival in EDNL.

A shuttle service will be organised between the hotels and the airport.
